INMATE OUTSIDE WORK PROGRAM APPLICATION

_____, (print organization name) am requesting that inmates perform voluntary work, as permitted by New York State Correction Law, Section 72, subdivision 2-a, that allows inmates, under guard, to perform labor or services when in the public interest. The organization must be nonprofit, used exclusively for religious, charitable or education purposes, where no part of the net earnings benefits any private shareholder or individual.

Documentation to verify the organization must be attached to this application in addition to a written request specifically outlining the proposed work, to include date(s), time(s), location, staff members that will be present and any other information available.
